

Sex Education Policy

1. INTRODUCTION

Children and young people at St. John's are no less entitled to learn about their own sexuality, the process of human reproduction and developing and maintaining loving relationships than their peers in mainstream schools. To this end the Governors have agreed with the staff the following Sex Education Policy. The policy was submitted to parents for consultation and subsequently two small revisions were included in the final document.