

An eventful evening

The joint Jabberwocky Events launch party and Find and Build Christmas party on Friday 8 December at the Lo Lounge saw an array of performers, from Elvis and Madonna to gorgeous bare-bottom butlers and burlesque feather dancers, all come together to celebrate in fabulously decadent style.

Jabberwocky Events (www.jabberwockyevents.org.uk) supplies unique performers to both corporate and private events and Find and Build (www.findandbuild.co.uk) are Brighton's original property search and renovation company.

Party first

On Tuesday 5 December, Business First, Brighton and Hove's newest business magazine, had its launch party at one of the UK's most exciting contemporary art spaces, O Contemporary, on Trafalgar Street. Publisher Nick Peters praised his team at Business First and was looking forward to continued expansion and success for the magazine in 2007. The magazine is widely distributed and can also be read online at www.businessfirstmagazine.co.uk

Elizabeth Gilbert-Russell (Thomas Eggar), Stephen Kalinich (writer and poet), Lucy Robson (Thomas Eggar) and Mike Holland (Cherrywood Investments)

Guests

Tinny and Suzannah

Kittens

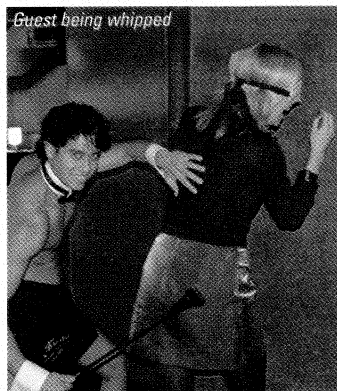

Stuart Newman (Business First) and Victoria Madden (Senatus)

Kevin Berry (General manager, Old Ship Hotel) and Katharine Thay (Insight City News)

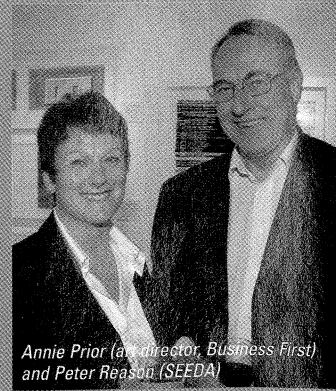

Phoebe

Guest being whipped

Mike Holland (Cherrywood Investments) and Stephen Kalinich (writer and poet)

Annie Prior (art director, Business First) and Peter Reason (SEEDA)

Kinky police on patrol

Face-painted guests

Leticia Parmer (astrologer), Marc Abraham (PETS), Claire Mitchell (The Operational Employer Engagement Group) and Jacky Misson (NIDO Marketing)

If you have a business event you would like featured, please email editorial@thelatest.co.uk